The 2nd respondent appeared in person. It is submitted that steps have already been taken to publish photograph of the girl in the newspaper in Karnataka as the girl is suspected to be residing there and all out efforts are taken to trace out the girl. In the circumstances, it is further ordered that the photograph of the girl be published through the visual media as well and a Senior Officer of the Police Department may also be involved so as to take effective steps for investigation. Government Pleader assured that all possible steps will be taken and report filed within ten days.

Post after ten days.
